VICE-PRESIDENT OF INDIA

MESSAGE

My hearty greetings and good wishes to the people of our country on the auspicious occasion of Holi, the festival of colours.

Holi which is celebrated across the country with much enthusiasm marks the advent of the spring season and reminds us of our tradition of unity amidst diversity. The mood of joyfulness captured in the colours of Holi unites people in the celebration of the festival, strengthening our social fabric.

May this festival fill our lives with happiness and peace.

(M. HAMID ANSARI)
